

News

We regularly issue press releases. Click on some of our latest news items below.

-

Arrival of Chinese Drug Firm Dispenses Opportunity for Growth

Tuesday 17th March 2009

Delegates from the Nanjing government's science and innovation arm travelled to the region on Tuesday, March 10th to officially open the European office of a growing Chinese multinational drug development company, paving the way for new research and development activities in the North East.

Read more

-

North East leads the way in national awards

Monday 09th March 2009

Three North East companies are celebrating after making the shortlist for a national award.

Read more

-

Cels Health and Wellbeing Surgery - working towards a healthier region

Wednesday 25th February 2009

North East professionals in the health and wellbeing sector are invited to a free morning seminar to discuss the health of the region at St James Park on Wednesday 4 March.

Read more

-

North East leads the way with ageing research

Thursday 05th February 2009

Newcastle's work in ageing research is being included in a workshop to be put forward to the United Nations Public Administration Network this month by computer giant Microsoft, following a collaboration with Cels.

Read more

News

-

Funding opportunities announced at regenerative medicine event

Monday 02nd February 2009

Three academic teams from northern universities have been awarded regeNer8 grants.
Read more

- Page
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- »