

Healthcare companies

North East England has a thriving industrial healthcare economy, featuring rich sub-clusters of companies in fields such as medical devices, assistive technology, biologics manufacturing and health informatics, that complement its pharmaceutical base.

For details of companies operating in the North East, visit the Cels HealthConnect microsite.