

Who we support

Cels supports a wide range of companies and individuals operating in the Healthcare and Life Sciences sector, primarily:

- Existing regional businesses in North East England
- Researchers with potential new technology
- New start-up businesses in healthcare and bio-technology
- Companies seeking regional partners
- Companies with new ideas that they'd like developing
- Companies looking to locate in North East England

If you fit into one of these categories, find out how we can help you by clicking on the links to the left.

If you do not fit into any of these categories, contact us now to discuss how we can help you.